It now remains with you, the Governor to my whether these punishments shall One of the Commission

Gov. Flower has dismissed the charges of inhuman and brutal conduct against Supt. Brockway of the Elmira Reformatory, although the second investigation has resulted in a disagreement.

The Chairman of the investigating commission, ex-Judge Learned, of the Supreme Court, decides that The World's charges have been sustained and that the managers of that institution should be removed for having permitted Brockway to practise such cruelties. The other members of the commission decide that the managers should not be re-moved, and that Brockway has not

State Board of Charities resulted in a unanimous verdict that The World's were true; that Brockway was in fact cruel and inhuman in the treat-ment of the prisoners under his care. That board, serving without salary and from purely philanthropic motives, consisted of William R. Stewart, Dr. Stephen Smith and Mrs. Beekman de Peyster, of this city; Edward H. Litchield and Carl H. De Silver, of Brooklyn; J. H. Van Antwerp and Edward W. Foster, of Albany; Robert McCarthy, of Syracuse; Peter Walrath. of Chittenango; Dr. E. V. Stoddard, of Rochester, and William P. Letchworth,

When these gentlemen reported the cruel practices in vogue in the Eimira Reformatory Gov. Flower was asked to ckway. He answered that e had not the power; that the Board of Managers of the reformatory alone could do that. These managers had hould remove Brockway on account of Brockway to practise such cruelties. He would not act on the report of the State Board of Charities, which was court; Dr. Austin Flint, of this city, and the Assembly from Binghamton. This commission heard the testimony over

This commission now reports a disagreement. The Chairman, ex-Justice Learned, of the Supreme Court, finds that The World's charges are sustained, and that the managers should be removed for permitting Brockway's crucia and excessive punishments of the Elmira prisoners, while the other two members, though they censure some of Brockway's proceedings, do not think that the managers should be removed. Gov. Flower has decided against the State Board of Charities and against ex-Justice Learned, of the Supreme Court. He decides with Dr. Flint and Mr. Deyo, He refuses to remove the Board of Managers of the Elmira Reformatory and retains Brockway in his place.

Ex-Judge Learned's decision is in practical uniformity with that unanimously arrived at by the State Board of Charities, but he goes further and decides that all corporal punishment was not only cruel but unlawful: in direct violation of the laws of the State.

The last line of Judge Learned's findings is the strongest word that has yet been used in the exposure of these wrongs.

The basis of true reformation must lie as change of character, coming from a love of what is good, not from a fear of suffering.

It now remains with you, the Governor, to say whether these punishments shall continue. Repectfully submitted, WILLIAM L. LEARNED, One of the Commissioners Dated Dec. 8, 1894.

A YOUTHFUL HIGHWAYMAN.

Seven-year-old John Purcell, lives with his mother at 98 Tillary street, Brooklyn, is seriously ill from concus-sion of the brain, received in a fight ooklyn, is seriously ill from concuswith an unknown juvenile highwayman, who knocked him down in broad daycents. The boy is in the Homoeopathic Hospital. The doctors this morning said while his condition is dangerous, care-ful attention might save his life.

The boy is unconscious, and the police have been unable to get an accurate description of the youngster who assaulted him. The boy got five cents from his mother yesterday and went out to buy candy. He came home a few minutes later and told his mother he had been knocked down by a colored boy, who tried to rob him of his money.

"I fought him off, mamma," said Johnny, "but while we were tussling he struck my head against the sidewalk. I guess my head must be cut."

Mrs. Furcell found no marks upon it. Half as hour later she sent him on an errand. In a short time a policeman informed her the boy had been taken ill on Hudson avenue and carried into a store.

GRANDMOTHER LEE WINS.

All of Her Daughter's Children Are in Her Possession.

Judge Dugro this morning granted Naomi Lee permission to remove her five grandchildren from the flat of their late other Mrs Ada B McDonald by force The flat is at 107 West One Hundred and Twenty-ninth street.

Twenty-ninth street.

Saturday last Mrs. Lee went to the flat with an order for the children. Two of them, Madge and Franklin, went with her. The others refused to go, and Edith went into hysteries.

At noon the children finally consented to accept the guardianship of their grandmother. They insisted that an "Evening World" reporter, who was present, should be their custodian as far as the school at One Hundred and Twenty-sixth street and Eighth avenue, where Mrs. Lee desired to place them. The reporter accepted the trust. The children will remain there for ten days and then be partitioned among the members of the family. The two boys, Walter and Roland, will go to their uncle in Worcester, Mass.

HER HUSBAND WAS RUDE.

Arrestell and Shot Herself.

Mme. Steinmetz is a fashionable hair resser at 216 East Eighty-fourth street. She called in a policeman last night and demanded that he arrest her husband who, she tearfully declared, had been rude to her.

The husbarid said that it was a family matter; that he was only talking to his wife because she was intoxicated. He had found her so when he returned to the house, he said. Madame didn't appear intoxicated to the policeman, and she said it was an insuit to consider her so. It took the policeman only a few minutes to fix matters up, and when he left the husband and wife said they would quarrel no more.

An hour later another policeman found Steinmetz wringing his hands and crying for help from his doorstep.

"My wife has killed herself," he yelled. She called in a policeman last night and
